

"Rivers Edge"

Music By : Factory Seconds Band

Lyrics By : David Robert Moore & Scott Joel Prather

Take me down to the river's edge
Wash my sins away
Take me down to the river's edge
Lord I'm yours today

I'm a man of many fears
Findin' answers on my own
Travelin' down the same old road
Same old things that I have known
Two lines and a twenty-dollar bill
In my hand again
Taking chances with this one life
I don't understand - Whoa- oh

Take me down to the river's edge
Wash my sins away
Take me down to the river's edge
Lord I'm yours today

Show me what you want from me
I still can't hear your voice
Blind to truth and I just can't see
Living this way is not my choice
Red stained heart of an angry man
Past regrets and pain
I want to know your touch
I'm so far apart
God I call you name

Take me down to the river's edge
Wash my sins away
Take me down to the river's edge
Lord I'm yours today

Yeaaaaah !

Take me down to the river's edge
Wash my sins away
Take me down to the river's edge
Lord I'm yours today - Yeah !

Take me down to the river's edge
Wash my sins away
Take me down to the river's edge
Lord I'm - Yours
